

“Parade through Macao, Latin City – Photography Contest”

Organiser: Cultural Affairs Bureau of the Macao S.A.R. Government

Co-organiser: Photographic Society of Macao

Aim: In celebration of the 13th Anniversary of Macao’s Handover to China, the Photography Contest aims to encourage citizens to actively participate in this cultural event by providing local shutterbugs with a platform to exchange and share their own images of the festivities. The contest is divided into Student and Public categories.

Content: Submissions must focus on one or more aspects of the December 20th Parade, for example, depictions of the joyous atmosphere or close-ups and highlights of the performances. (Computer manipulated works will not be accepted.)

Eligibility: Macao Residents

Categories:

- (1) Student – for residents aged 13 to 24;
- (2) Public – for residents aged 25 and above.

Work specifications: Participants must submit a size 8" x 10" (20.3cm x 25.4cm) unmounted print of each work, together with soft copy of the photos on CD-ROM. The file size of each photo should not be less than 6MB. Participants should write their name, contact number and the title of the work on the back of each print.

Quantity: Each participant may submit up to 10 photos.

Submission period: from 20/12/2012 to 13/01/2013.

Evaluation: The evaluation panel consists of two experienced professionals, invited by the Photographic Society of Macao, plus a representative from the Cultural Affairs Bureau. Winners will be announced on the websites of the Photographic Society of Macao and the Cultural Affairs Bureau.
