‘Parade through Macao, Latin City’ – Call for Submission of Proposals of Local Arts Groups

Preface

The ‘Parade through Macao, Latin City’ is one of the trademark festivals of Macao. It aims to enrich the residents’ cultural life and is a festive activity filled with local and international cultural characteristics aimed at residents and tourists. It also provides local arts groups a performance platform and an opportunity for them to express their creativity.

In order to celebrate the anniversary of Macao’s handover to China, the Cultural Affairs Bureau is holding the 2016 ‘Parade through Macao, Latin City’ on 4 December. The Parade is themed “VIVA’s Adventure”, narrating the story of how VIVA, inspired by the Classic of Mountains and Seas (Shan Hai Jing), makes a journey from Macao to the East in order to explore customs and traditions from all around the world, to find that the best destination is the place where he started after all. On the day of the Parade, let’s welcome VIVA’s return to Macao. The Cultural Affairs Bureau is now calling for the submission of proposals of local arts groups, inviting all registered cultural and arts organizations to participate in this grand event.

1. Categories of the Call for Proposals

Applications are divided into two categories. The artistic groups can select one of the following:

1.1Parade: includes only the Parade but doesn’t include participating in the closing ceremony joint performance. Participation is limited to 35 groups.1.2Parade and closing performance: in addition to the Parade, the arts groups will perform in the closing ceremony at Tap Siac Square. The arts groups must provide a 3-minute self-made performance related to this edition’ theme; participation is limited to 5 groups. An award will be given to the best performance, and the winning group will get a chance to represent Macao in the “Asian Ethnic Cultural Performances in Hong Kong.
