Historic Centre of Macao

In the 29th Session of the UNESCO's World Heritage Committee convened on 15 July 2005, the "Historic Centre of Macao" was inscribed on the World Heritage List upon the unanimous approval of 21 State Parties, making it the 31st World Heritage site in China.

The "Historic Centre of Macao" is composed of 8 squares, 22 classified immovable properties and streets connecting squares and historical buildings.

8 squares: Barra Square, Lilau Square, St. Augustine's Square, Senado Square, Cathedral Square, St. Dominic's Square, Company of Jesus Square and Camões Square;

22 historic buildings: A-Ma Temple, Moorish Barracks, Mandarin's House, St. Lawrence's Church, St. Joseph's Seminary and Church, Dom Pedro V Theatre, Sir Robert Ho Tung Library, St. Augustine's Church, Municipal Affairs Bureau Building (old Leal Senado Building), Sam Kai Vui Kun (Kuan Tai Temple), Holy House of Mercy, Cathedral, Lou Kau Mansion, St. Dominic's Church, Ruins of St. Paul's, Na Tcha Temple, Section of the Old City Walls, Mount Fortress, St. Anthony's Church, Casa Garden, the Protestant Cemetery and Guia Fortress (including Guia Chapel and Lighthouse).

The "Historic Centre of Macao", consisting of a group of classified immovable properties, squares and streets, manifests the urban structure of this major trading port city with its content and morphology. With the historic streets, residential, religious and public buildings in Portuguese and Chinese styles, the "Historic Centre of Macao" provides a unique testimony to the convergence of Eastern and Western aesthetic, cultural, religious, architectural and technological influences. It also bears witness to the first and most enduring encounter between China and the West amid the vibrant development of international trade.

Outstanding Universal Value of the Heritage

The "Historic Centre of Macao" was inscribed on the World Heritage List by virtue of satisfying UNESCO's selection criteria (ii), (iii), (iv) and (vi). The evaluation results in accordance with the criteria are as follows:

With the support of the Central People's Government, the Macao SAR Government took the inscription of Macao on the World Heritage List as one of its priorities.

- A series of publicity efforts commenced for the application of Macao as World Heritage
- The draft application proposal of the "Historic Monuments of Macao" was framed
- The "Application of Macao to World Cultural Heritage Launch Day" on 23 July2001 marked the official commencement of the application process

UNESCO's World Heritage Centre accepted the application proposal for Macao to be inscribed on the World Heritage List.

The "Historic Monuments of Macao" were declared the first item in China to apply for inscription on the World Heritage List for the year of 2005.

The International Council of Monuments and Sites (ICOMOS), the association in charge of World Cultural Heritage assessment, sent experts to Macao for an on-site evaluation.

As suggested by the International Council on Monuments and Sites, the original proposal of "Historic Monuments of Macao" was revised to "Historic Centre of Macao", enriching the idea of the 12 original buildings and linking them to neighbouring squares and streets, giving shape to a core historical area that comprised the old centre of Macao.

The proposed items in the Historic Centre of Macao underwent a technical assessment by World Heritage experts.

During the 29th Session of the UNESCO's World Heritage Committee in Durban, South Africa, the "Historic Centre of Macao" was included in UNESCO's World Heritage List, making it the 31st designated World Heritage site in China.

UNESCO's Convention for the Safeguarding of the Intangible Cultural Heritage was enforced in Macao.

The Cultural Heritage Protection Law (Law No.11/2013) was published.

The Cultural Heritage Protection Law came into effect on 1 March 2014.

The "Protection and Management Plan of the Historic Centre of Macao" (hereinafter referred to as "the Plan") was formulated progressively based on the Cultural Heritage Protection Law:

- In late 2014, public consultation for the framework of the Plan commenced
- In 2015, the compilation of opinions on the framework of the Plan during public consultation was issued
- In 2016-2017, the second phase of public consultation paper of the Plan was developed
- In early 2018, the second phase of the public consultation was launched
- In 2018, a summary report for the second phase of the public consultation was released
- $\bullet\,$ In 2019, a draft of the administrative regulation for the Plan was formulated

Effective protection of the "Historic Centre of Macao" will continue to be implemented, and the legislative work for the Plan will be expedited.

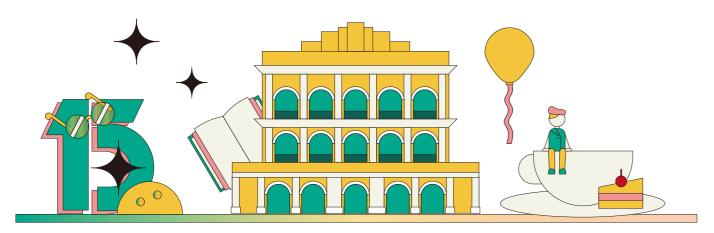

Introduction of Activities in Celebration of the 15th Anniversary of the Inscription of the "Historic Centre of Macao" on the World Heritage List

The inscription of the "Historic Centre of Macao" on the World Heritage List has not only opened Macao's door to the rest of the world, but has also supported and reinforced the cultural foundation of Macao to steadily build on the past and present and to look into the future. Time flies and the Historic Centre of Macao is now embracing the 15th anniversary of its inscription on the World Heritage List, which marks a new milestone in Macao's cultural heritage protection and legacy. For the celebration of the 15th anniversary, the Cultural Affairs Bureau is organizing a rich variety of activities to convey the concept of "Appreciating Our World Heritage Together", including a thematic festival, special opening of heritage sites, a story-writing competition, WeChat game, guided tours and workshops, and the "Fun Sharing Cultural Heritage" lectures and workshops. With the series of intriguing activities, the Cultural Affairs Bureau seeks to encourage everyone to experience the beauty of Macao's World Heritage in their daily life, to re-discover the World Heritage sites that play a crucial part in moments of our lives, and to gather to appreciate the Historic Centre of Macao, which is a precious cultural treasure that belongs to all of us.
